CIVIL CASE NO. CV 03-00036

NOTICE OF REMOVAL OF ACTION PURSUANT TO
28 U.S.C. § 1332 AND 48 U.S.C.
§ 1424 (DIVERSITY JURISDICTION)

TO THE CLERK OF THE ABOVE ENTITLED COURT:

PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that Defendant The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited ("HSBC") hereby removes this action from the Superior Court of Guam to the United States District Court for the Territory of Guam, based on Federal diversity jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1332 and 48 U.S.C. § 1424, as more fully discussed below:

1. On October 21, 2003, Plaintiffs filed a Complaint for Damages

ORIGINAL

("Complaint") in the Superior Court of Guam in Civil Action No. CV1560-03;

2. There is complete diversity between Plaintiffs and HSBC in this action because Alan Sadhwani and Laju Sadhwani are individuals that are residents of Guam and K. Sadhwani's Inc. is a citizen of Guam incorporated under the laws of Guam with its principal place of business in Guam, all as alleged in the Complaint, and, further, HSBC is a foreign corporation licensed to do business in Guam incorporated under the laws of Hongkong, a Special Administrative Region of the People's Republic of China, with its principal place of business in Hongkong;
3. The Defendants identified as "John Does" I thru X in the Complaint are merely fictitious parties against whom no cause of action can be validly alleged. All of Plaintiffs' allegations against John Doe Defendants are merely a sham. To the best of HSBC's information and belief, no fictitiously represented Defendant has been served with process, and these fictitious parties may be ignored for purposes of determining removal, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a);
4. More than $75,000, exclusive of interest and costs, is in controversy in this action;
5. This Court would have original subject matter jurisdiction of this action under the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1332 if the action had originally been brought in Federal court. Removal is, therefore, proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1441(a);

6. Removal of this case on the basis of diversity of citizenship is not precluded by the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1441(b) because none of the parties in interest properly joined and served as a Defendant is a citizen of the Territory of Guam, the Territory in which this action was brought;
7. This Notice of Removal is timely under 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b) because the Summons and Complaint in this action were filed in the Superior Court of Guam and served on HSBC on October 21, 2003. This Notice of removal is filed within 30 days of receipt of the Summons and Complaint and within one year of the commencement of the action, so that it is timely filed under 28 U.S.C. § 1446(b); and
8. True and correct copies of all papers served upon HSBC at the time of removal, consisting of the Summons, Complaint, First Set of Interrogatories, and First Request for Production of Documents are attached hereto as Exhibits "A", "B", "C", and "D", respectively.

COMPLAINT FOR DAMAGES;
DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiffs complain of Defendants:

1. Jurisdiction is vested in this Court pursuant to Section 3105, Title 7, Guam Code Annotated, this being an action arising under the laws of Guam.
2. Plaintiffs Alan Sadhwani and Laju Sadhwani are husband and wife, residents of Guam for many years. K. Sadhwani's Inc., is a Guam corporation authorized and licensed to do business in Guam. Defendant Hongkong & Shanghai Banking Corporation, Ltd., is a foreign corporation licensed and authorized to do banking business in Guam.

3. Defendants John Doe I through John Doe X, are the fictitious names of defendants whose true names are unknown to the Plaintiffs, and Plaintiffs ask that when such true names are discovered that this Complaint may be amended by inserting such true names in the place and stead of said fictitious names.

4. At all times material herein, Plaintiffs have engaged in the business of acquiring real properties and developing them. They have also engaged in the business of leasing, renting real properties, including offices and other commercial building, and selling electronics, fixtures and appliances. At all times material herein, Defendant Hongkong & Shanghai Banking Corporation, Ltd. (hereafter "Bank") was in the business of a full service bank, lending funds to customers, taking mortgages, security instruments and other evidences of indebtedness, and taking deposits.

5. Plaintiffs have been for about twenty five (25) years, customers of Defendant Bank, executing and delivering to Defendant Bank evidences of their indebtedness secured by mortgages and other security instruments, and depositing funds in Defendant Bank. Plaintiffs went into business, Tick Tock, in 1978. Mr. Sadhwani met the then Manager of Defendant Bank, in 1978, at a meeting of Rotarians, and since then has banked exclusively with Defendant Bank (except for credit card deposits to Citibank, because Defendant Bank, a foreign corporation, did not accept credit card deposits from merchants). All of Plaintiffs' deposits and borrowings, were with Defendant Bank exclusively. Plaintiffs deposited about $100 million with Defendant Bank during these twenty-five (25) years. At one time, Plaintiffs total obligation to Defendant Bank was $12 million. Mr. Sadhwani negotiated with Defendant Bank to build their Bank building in Tamuning, thus becoming Defendant Bank's Landlord. In addition to the long-standing relationship, Plaintiffs also had social relationships with the Defendant Bank. The Sadhwanis socialized with Bank Managers (who changed every 3 years) at Mr. Sadhwani's home, at the home of the Bank Managers, or in restaurants. As borrowers, Plaintiffs have paid the Defendant Bank thousands of dollars in interest and fees. By virtue of such long relationship, Plaintiffs placed explicit faith, trust, and confidence in the Defendant Bank, trusting that the Defendant Bank and its officers and employees would deal fairly and honestly with them, the Plaintiffs.

6. On November 6, 2002, Plaintiffs and Defendant Bank entered into an agreement entitled "Amendment to Credit Facility/Lease" a copy of which is attached as Exhibit "A". Pursuant to this Agreement, the balance of Plaintiffs' Note to Defendant Bank was $6,682,494.56, as of September 27, 2002 (hereafter the "Loan").

7. On February 13, 2003, representatives of the Defendant Bank met with Plaintiff Alan Sadhwani (hereafter "Mr. Sadhwani"), and on February 17, 2003, the Defendant Bank wrote to Mr. Sadhwani purportedly memorializing the discussion which took place on February 13, 2003. A copy of Defendant Bank's letter is attached as Exhibit "B".

8. On March 5, 2003, Mr. Sadhwani met with representatives of the Defendant Bank at the Defendant Bank's office, at which time representatives of the Defendant Bank informed Mr. Sadhwani that Defendant Bank would give a "hairline discount" if Plaintiffs paid off the Loan. Additionally, said representatives suggested a "friendly foreclosure". Based upon these representations, Mr. Sadhwani was induced to believe that if he found funding for repayment of the Plaintiffs' Loan with Defendant Bank, the Defendant Bank would discount or reduce the balance of the Loan. On the same date, Plaintiffs and Defendant Bank entered into an agreement entitled "Promissory Note Modification Agreement", a copy of which is attached and marked Exhibit "C".

9. On March 6, 2003, Defendant Bank wrote to the Plaintiffs again reiterating that the Defendant Bank would consider a discount on the Loan and a "friendly foreclosure". A copy of such letter is attached as Exhibit "D".

10. By letter dated March 13, 2003, Defendant Bank reiterated its recommendation for a "friendly foreclosure". A copy of said letter is attached as Exhibit "E".

11. By letter dated March 14, 2003, Mr. Sadhwani requested clarification and asked for details about the "friendly foreclosure". Additionally, Mr. Sadhwani requested more information about the "discount" which was offered by the Defendant Bank in the March 5, 2003 meeting. A copy of such letter is attached as Exhibit "F".

12. By letter dated March 21, 2003, Defendant Bank offered three proposals to work out the Loan: Plaintiffs could sell the mortgaged properties; Plaintiffs could execute deeds in lieu of foreclosure at "negotiated values;" or Plaintiffs could refinance the Loan. Additionally, Defendant Bank assured Plaintiffs that "... Bank is ready, able and willing to assist ..." Plaintiffs in their "... negotiation of replacement financing." A copy of such letter is attached as Exhibit "G".

13. Plaintiffs accepted Defendant Bank's first and third proposals. Pursuant to the on-going work out agreement with Defendant Bank, Plaintiffs sought the services of Century 21, to find buyers for the properties subject to the Defendant Bank mortgage. By letter dated April 3, 2003, Century 21 reported on its efforts to sell the properties. A copy of such letter is attached as Exhibit "H".

14. By letter dated April 3, 2003, Defendant Bank transmitted a copy of the Promissory Note Modification dated March 5, 2003. A copy of such letter is attached as Exhibit "I".

15. By letter dated April 4, 2003, Mr. Sadhwani wrote to Defendant Bank notifying it that he was trying to obtain financing to pay off Plaintiff's Loan, and the attempt to sell the properties to pay off the Loan, enclosing a copy of the Century 21 letter (Exhibit "H"). A copy of such letter is attached and marked Exhibit "J".

16. On July 18, 2003, Plaintiffs received a document entitled "Notice of Intent to Sell Loan", dated July 15, 2003, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit "K". This Notice came as a total surprise to Plaintiffs, since Defendant Bank assured Mr. Sadhwani that the Plaintiffs had until August 31, 2003, to settle their Loan.

17. On July 22, 2003, Mr. Sadhwani telephoned Mr. Underwood. Mr. Underwood came to Mr. Sadhwani's office; when asked again Mr. Underwood declined to name the purchase price for the Loan. Mr. Sadhwani pleaded not to sell the Loan. Mr. Sadhwani asked Mr. Underwood whether the Bank would accept $3 million for the Loan; Mr. Underwood replied "No." Mr. Sadhwani then said how about $3.5 million. Mr. Underwood said: "Get me the money or guarantee, and I will try to stop the sale."

18. On July 31, 2003, Mr. Sadhwani detailed his attempts to settle the Loan. A copy of such letter is attached and marked Exhibit "L". Mr. Sadhwani saw Mr. Underwood and again pleaded not to sell the Loan. Mr. Underwood assured him that if he received the offer [i.e., money or bank letter] by August 8, Mr. Underwood said, "I will see what I can do."

19. On August 5, 2003, Mr. Sadhwani obtained terms and conditions for alternative financing from First Hawaiian Bank for $3.5 million, a copy of which is attached and marked Exhibit "M". On the same date, by letter (Exhibit "N") Mr. Sadhwani transmitted the First Hawaiian Bank letter to Defendant Bank.

20. On August 11, 2003, Mr. Underwood addressed a letter to Mr. Sadhwani stating: "I am pleased to inform you that on Monday, the 11th of August 2003 your loan was sold to Paradise Marine Corporation." A copy of such letter is attached and marked Exhibit "O".

21. Although Plaintiffs requested of the Bank and Paradise Marine Corporation a copy of the Loan purchase agreement, they both refused. Both also refused to divulge the purchase price. Upon information and belief, Plaintiffs allege that the purchase price for the Loan is less than $3 million.

22. Paragraph 1 of the Promissory Note Modification Agreement (Exhibit "C") provides:

"1. Extension of Maturity Date. The Maturity Date of the Note is hereby extended for a period of time up to and including August 31, 2003. The Lender will review the note every six months, and reserves the right in its sole discretion to call for repayment of principal and interest then outstanding and unpaid. Default on the terms of the Note will supercede this review process, and entitle the Lender to call for immediate repayment of one." (Emphasis added).

23. Plaintiffs fully complied with the payment terms provided in the Amendment to Credit Facility/Lease (Exhibit "A"), i.e., payment of $51,719 from October 2001 to May 2003, and $75,000 commencing June 30, 2003.

24. Many parcels of real property owned by the Plaintiffs were mortgaged to secure the Loan. These parcels are prime properties on Guam. Several of the buildings are Guam landmarks, e.g., the Tick Tock Building in East Agana; the HSBC Building, Marine Drive, Tamuning; the Deloitte & Touche Building along Marine Drive, Tamuning; and Sateena Mall in Dededo, among others. At one time, these properties were worth much more than $12 million. At one time, these properties secured a Loan to the Plaintiffs from Defendant Bank in excess of $12 million. Yet, Defendant Bank, notwithstanding the pleas of the Plaintiffs to give them time within which to obtain other financing in order to buy back their Loan, nonetheless sold the Loan to Paradise Marine Corporation for an amount, according to information and belief, of less than $3 million, even though Plaintiffs had obtained terms and conditions for alternative financing from First Hawaiian Bank for $3.5 million.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

BREACH OF COVENANT OF GOOD FAITH AND FAIR DEALING

25. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 24 above as if fully set forth herein.

26. Defendant Bank, as a party to the Loan agreement and the work out agreement with plaintiffs, has a duty to deal fairly with Plaintiffs and in good faith.

27. In the March 21, 2003 letter (Exhibit "G"), Defendant Bank offered three (3) proposals to work out the Loan: Plaintiffs could sell the mortgaged properties; Plaintiffs could execute deeds in lieu of foreclosure "at negotiated values"; or Plaintiffs could refinance the Loan. On this latter option, Defendant Bank agreed that it was "ready, able and willing to assist your negotiation of replacement financing."

28. Plaintiff accepted the first and third proposals offered by Defendant Bank. Relying on these work out proposals, Plaintiffs immediately listed certain properties for sale with Century 21 Realty Management and applied to various banks, including First Hawaiian Bank, to obtain alternative financing. Plaintiffs obtained terms and conditions for alternative financing from First Hawaiian Bank and forwarded such terms and conditions to Defendant Bank on August 5, 2003. Defendant Bank refused to accept such alternative financing and instead sold the Loan to Paradise Marine Corporation on August 11, 2003 for an amount less than the amount Plaintiffs had secured as alternative financing.

29. Defendant Bank acted in bad faith and failed to deal fairly with Plaintiffs in refusing to agree to a commercially reasonable work out and in refusing to accept the alternative financing obtained by Plaintiffs.

30. As a result of Defendant Bank's bad faith and failure to deal fairly with Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs have suffered damages in an amount to be proved at trial.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

INTENTIONAL MISREPRESENTATION

31. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 30 above as if fully set forth herein.

32. Defendant Bank represented to Plaintiffs that it would give a "hairline discount" on the Loan if Plaintiffs paid off the Loan.

33. Defendant Bank also represented to Plaintiffs that it was willing to work out the Loan with Plaintiffs and further represented that Plaintiffs could resolve its indebtedness by accepting the options proposed by Defendant Bank, as detailed in paragraph 27, above.

34. In reliance upon Defendant Bank's representations, Plaintiffs were induced to list their properties for sale with Century 21 Commonwealth Realty and to apply for alternative financing with various banks.

35. Had the alternative financing offered by First Hawaiian Bank and obtained by Plaintiffs been accepted by Defendant Bank, Plaintiffs would have saved thousands of dollars in interest and loan payments and increased costs, and they would not be required to make the loan payments as required by Paradise Marine Corporation.

36. Defendant Bank intentionally misrepresented that it was interested in pursuing a commercially reasonable work out, when it had no desire or intention to work out the Loan.

37. As a result of the intentional misrepresentations made by Defendant Bank to Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs have suffered damages in an amount to be proved at trial.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

BREACH OF CONTRACT - PROMISSORY NOTE MODIFICATION

38. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 37 above as if fully set forth herein.

39. Plaintiffs and Defendant Bank entered into a valid loan contract for the Loan. Paragraph 1 of the Promissory Note Modification Agreement (Exhibit "C") provides:

Extension of Maturity Date. The Maturity Date of the Note is hereby extended for a period of time up to and including August 31, 2003. The Lender will review the note every six months, and reserves the right in its sole discretion to call for repayment of principal and interest then outstanding and unpaid. Default on the terms of the Note will supercede this review process, and entitle the Lender to call for immediate repayment of one. (Emphasis added)

40. Plaintiffs fully complied with the payment terms provided in the Amendment to Credit Facility/Lease (Exhibit "A"), i.e., payment of $51,719 from October 2001 to May 2003, and $75,000 commencing June 30, 2003. Plaintiffs were not in default of the Loan documents, the Amendment to Credit Facility/Lease, or the Promissory Note Modification Agreement.

41. Defendant Bank failed to fulfill the terms of the Promissory Note Modification Agreement to review the Note every six months, in violation of the Promissory Note Modification Agreement.

42. In addition, none of the Loan agreements between Plaintiffs and Defendant Bank allow for the sale of the Loan to Paradise Marine Corporation. Defendant Bank breached its Loan agreement with Plaintiffs by selling the Loan to Paradise Marine Corporation.

43. As a proximate result of Defendant Bank's breaches of contract, Plaintiffs suffered damages including but not limited to, increased interest payments, increased costs, and other damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

BREACH OF CONTRACT - WORK OUT AGREEMENT

44. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 43 above as if fully set forth herein.

45. Plaintiffs and Defendant Bank entered into a valid work out agreement, where Defendant Bank offered proposals to work out the Loan and Plaintiffs accepted two of the proposals. Plaintiffs immediately listed certain properties for sale with Century 21 Realty Management and Plaintiffs obtained terms and conditions for alternative financing from First Hawaiian Bank for alternative financing.

46. Defendant Bank failed to assist Plaintiffs' negotiations for replacement financing; refused to accept the replacement financing as detailed in the terms and conditions for alternative financing from First Hawaiian Bank; failed to give a "hairline discount" on the Loan when Plaintiffs obtained the terms and conditions for alternative financing from First Hawaiian Bank; and sold the Loan to Paradise Marine Corporation instead of complying with the parties' work out agreement. All of these acts constitute breaches of the work out agreement.

47. As a proximate result of Defendant Bank's breaches of the work out agreement, Plaintiffs suffered damages including but not limited to increased interest payments, increased costs, as well as other damages to be proven at trial.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

48. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 47 above as if fully set forth herein.

49. Because of the longstanding, close and confidential relationship between Defendant Bank and Plaintiffs, and by virtue of the trust and confidence which Defendant Bank encouraged Plaintiffs to place in the Bank and which the Plaintiffs did place in the Bank, as well as the assurances that the Bank gave Plaintiffs that it would agree to a commercially reasonable work out, Defendant Bank owed to Plaintiffs a duty of fiduciary care.

50. Defendant Bank breached its fiduciary duties owed to Plaintiffs by its acts, including but not limited to the following:

A. By disclosing confidential information, including but not limited to, account and deposit information, loan payment history, and other banking transactions between Plaintiffs and Defendant Bank, to Paradise Marine Corporation, a non-bank and purchaser of Plaintiffs' Loan with Defendant Bank.

B. By failing to assist Plaintiffs' negotiations for replacement financing, as Defendant Bank had represented;

C. By refusing to accept the replacement financing as detailed in the terms and conditions for such financing from First Hawaiian Bank and as required by the parties' work out agreement;

D. By failing to give a "hairline discount" on Plaintiffs' Loan when Plaintiffs obtained the terms and conditions for alternative financing from First Hawaiian Bank.

E. By selling the Loan to Paradise Marine Corporation, a Guam corporation that is not licensed to conduct banking and has never conducted banking business in Guam.

51. As a proximate result of the breaches of fiduciary duty as alleged herein, Plaintiffs have suffered damages, including but not limited to, increased interest payments, increased costs, and other damages in an amount to be proven at trial.

52. In doing the acts herein alleged, Defendant Bank acted with oppression, fraud, and malice, and Plaintiffs are therefore entitled to punitive damages.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

BREACH OF BANKING AND CONFIDENTIALITY LAWS

53. Plaintiffs reallege and incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 52 above as if fully set forth herein.

54. Defendant Bank is subject to the Banking Laws of the United States and the Banking Laws of Guam. Like other banks doing banking business on Guam, Defendant Bank is governed by laws, rules and regulations relating to the confidentiality of its customers' accounts and transactions. Plaintiffs trusted Defendant Bank to comply with the banking laws, particularly those governing confidentiality of their banking relationship with Defendant Bank and their accounts and transactions with Defendant Bank.

55. The purchaser of Plaintiffs' Loan is Paradise Marine Corporation. Paradise Marine Corporation (hereafter "PMC"), is a Guam corporation, whose primary purpose, according to its Articles of Incorporation, is "to engage in the business of commercial fisheries operation."

56. PMC does not now and has never obtained a license to do banking business on Guam; PMC is not now and has never been in the banking business; PMC is not now and has never been subject to the Banking Laws of the United States or the Banking Laws of Guam. PMC is not required to keep confidential any information concerning Plaintiffs' Loan, banking relationship with Defendant Bank, deposit accounts and transactions.

57. Absent the consent of the plaintiffs, Defendant Bank expressly or impliedly agreed that it, Defendant Bank, will not divulge to third persons the terms or the state of Plaintiffs' accounts with the Defendant Bank, any of their transactions with Defendant Bank, or any other information about the Plaintiffs acquired by Defendant Bank throughout the 25 years of their banking relationship. The negotiation, sale, assignment, and transfer of Plaintiffs' Loan to PMC constitutes a breach of banking and confidentiality laws by Defendant Bank.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray judgment against Defendant Bank as follows:

1. For compensatory damages according to proof.
2. For punitive damages according to proof.

3. For costs of suit and for such other and further relief as the Court may deem appropriate.

JURY TRIAL DEMAND

Plaintiffs demand a jury trial on all issues so triable.

Dated this 21 day of October, 2003.

AMENDMENT TO CREDIT FACILITY/LEASE

This instrument is made as of this 6th day of NOVEMBER, 2002, by and among THE HONGKONG AND SHANGHAI BANKING CORPORATION LIMITED, a foreign corporation ("Lender") and K. SADHWANI'S, INC., (the "Borrower"), and ALAN SADHWANI and LAJU SADHWANI, (the "Guarantors").

RECITALS:

- A. Borrower has heretofore executed and delivered in favor of Lender certain banking facilities amended by that certain Workout Agreement dated May 31, 2001 which provided for Borrower's repayment of the original principal amount of SEVEN MILLION FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS AND NO CENTS ($7,500,000.00) (the "Note");
- B. It has been agreed that the Maturity Date of the Note shall be extended for a period of time up to and including December 31, 2002;
- C. It has been agreed that the Lender shall prepay monthly rental payments of $23,281.00 to Borrower for the period October 2002 through May 2003 which shall be applied to reduce the principal balance of the Note; and
- D. Lender, Borrower and Guarantors have agreed to amend the Note as provided below.

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the premises and of the covenants hereinafter contained, the parties agree as follows:

1. Confirmation of Obligations. Borrower does hereby expressly confirm and agree that Borrower is primarily, jointly and severally, liable to Lender under the terms of the Note (as now existing and as herein amended), whether as a maker, guarantor, mortgagor or by way of assumption of liability. All terms of the Note and of any Mortgage securing the Note, and of any other document, instrument or thing arising in connection with the loan contemplated herein, shall continue in full force and effect, except as specifically amended herein.

2. Confirmation of Principal Balance. The parties confirm that, as of September 27, 2002, the unpaid principal balance of the Note is the sum of $6,821,494.56.

3. Extension of Maturity Date. The Maturity Date of the Note is hereby extended for a period of time up to and including December 31, 2002. The Lender will review the note every six months, and reserves the right in its sole discretion to call for repayment of principal and interest then outstanding and unpaid. Default on the terms of the Note will supercede this review process, and entitle the Lender to call for immediate repayment of principal and interest then outstanding and unpaid.

Re: 13FEB03 Meeting at HSBC Guam Office

Dear Alan,

Thank you for taking time to meet Magnus Montan, Guy Priestley, and myself on February 13, 2003 in the Bank. This letter is to memorialize the discussion, namely:

1. We expressed great concern over the prolonged economic depression on Guam, which casts doubt upon your company's ability to meet its financial obligations and specifically its scheduled loan repayments
2. We re-emphasized that the Bank is leaving the island, and will not be able to renew or extend the facility when it becomes due for repayment on 31 August 2003; therefore, we encouraged you to take urgent steps to identify how you will repay us on that date
3. You agreed to provide the Bank with a written plan to address point 2 above, and meet with us again on 24 February 2003
4. You said that you have listed the securing real estate properties for sale with Century 21, and asked them to refer all offers to you. ~~You further suggested that we contact them to discuss progress in finding buyers and other related information~~

Please sign the acknowledgement below and return it to us at your earliest convenience. We look forward to meeting with you again on 24 February 2003 to discuss your plan.

Sincerely,

PROMISSORY NOTE MODIFICATION AGREEMENT

INSTALLMENT LOAN NO.100023-381

This Promissory Note Modification Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into this 5 day of MARCH, 2003, by and among THE HONGKONG AND SHANGHAI BANKING CORPORATION LTD., a foreign corporation ("Lender") and K. SADHWANI'S, INC. ("Borrower"), and ALAN SADHWANI and LAJU SADHWANI, (THE "Guarantors").

On 08 November 2002 Borrower executed an Amendment To Credit Facility/Lease (the "Note") in the amount of SEVEN MILLION FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS AND NO CENTS ($7,500,000.00) payable to the order of the Bank. The outstanding balance of the Note as of December 31, 2002 is SIX MILLION FIVE HUNDRED SEVENTY ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED THREE AND FORTY TWO CENTS (USD6,571,903.42).

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises and the covenants herein contained, the parties agree to amend as follows:

1. Extension of Maturity Date. The Maturity Date of the Note is hereby extended for a period of time up to and including August 31, 2003. The Lender will review the note every six months, and reserves the right in its sole discretion to call for repayment of principal and interest then outstanding and unpaid. Default on the terms of the Note will supercede this review process, and entitle the Lender to call for immediate repayment of principal and interest then outstanding and unpaid.

2. Effective date. This Agreement and the regular payment modification provided in 11/6/02 shall be deemed effective as of December 31, 2002.

3. General. The terms, conditions, and covenants of the Note, the guarantees, the security agreement, and all other loan documents which may secure the Note or which may have been executed in relation to the Note or to the loan transaction which the Note evidences remain in full force and effect except as amended by the express terms of this Agreement, and none other.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Modification Agreement the day and date first above written.

Re: 05MAR03 Meeting at HSBC Guam Office

Dear Alan,

Thank you for taking time to meet Guy Priestley, Fred Granillo and myself on March 5, 2003 in the Bank. This letter is to memorialize the discussion, namely:

1. You provided the signed Promissory Note Modification Agreement which formally extends the facility to 31 August 2003. We re-emphasized that there will be no further extensions and encouraged you to take urgent steps to identify how you will repay us on that date.
2. You did not provide a written plan to repay us on the due date, as you had agreed in the 13 February 2003 meeting. Instead, you reiterated that you have listed the securing real estate properties for sale with Century 21, and that you would accept only reasonable offers. We noted that this is unacceptable in that it is not a written plan, nor did you quantify the term 'reasonable'. We reiterated that we need to know how the loan will be paid off by 31 August 2003 and asked again that you provide a written plan no later than 12 March 2003. You agreed.
3. We told you that the Bank is prepared, without in any way committing itself at this stage, to consider a discount on the loan balance if you elect to give the secured properties to the Bank. This "friendly foreclosure" method would transfer the burden of property liquidation to the Bank and minimise legal fees for both parties. If you wish to explore this approach, we ask that you assign a value to the property and submit a written proposal for our consideration.
4. You agreed to allow the bank to directly contact Century 21 to discuss progress in finding buyers and other related information.

Dear Mr. Sadhwani:

The deadline for the requested plan was yesterday as stated in a letter dated 6 March 2003 referenced GUM CCU 030021. Please provide the written plan today, as we have agreed upon, so that we understand how you intend on repaying the loan by the revised maturity date. Please also consider our recommended approach under "friendly foreclosure."

In addition to the above, in review of our files we have noted that the last appraisals done on the mortgaged properties were performed during 2000. As such, given significant market changes, we request that updated appraisals be done on all mortgaged properties to determine the actual current values. We will have Captain and Co. provide an appraisal quotation for your review. The appraisals are to be completed no later than 15 April 2003.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at 647-8528.

RE: PAYOFF PLAN

Dear Mr. Sadhwani:

We are concerned that you have not taken seriously the Bank's notice to K. Sadhwani Inc. that it will not be able to renew or extend its loan facility when it becomes due for repayment on August 31, 2003. You have previously negotiated an extension of your loan facility and the liquidation of several parcels of real property assets sufficient to reinstate the loan facility not two years ago. In fact, you executed several deeds in lieu of a foreclosure via the private power of sale contained in the mortgages to secure an extension of your loan facility with the bank.

Your recent fax on March 14, 2003 requested the details of a friendly foreclosure. As stated above, I believe that you are familiar with the process that the Bank used to liquidate the real property. It is possible that the bank may accept deeds in lieu of foreclosure at a negotiated release price in order to reduce the balance of your loan facility. This process provides certainty to the winding down of your business and satisfaction of its debt to the Bank. The Bank cannot guarantee that there will not be a resulting deficiency from the liquidation process. However, you have the control and discretion to reduce the exposure to a deficiency to a minimum by negotiating such an agreement.

You represented that you have listed your property with Century 21 Realtors. We request a copy of the listing agreements or a written authorization allowing Century 21 to provide copies to the Bank immediately. If you are able to sell your property at market price and have such listing agreements, the Bank may consider tolling collection efforts pending the closing in escrow of written accepted purchase offers with net proceeds paid to the Bank. The tolling of collection efforts would have to be part of a general liquidation or refinancing agreement. The Bank does not wish to negotiate with you on a parcel by parcel basis.

In the event that you cannot sell the properties through the efforts of Century 21, the Bank may consider accepting deeds in lieu of foreclosure at negotiated values. If you are not willing to negotiate a liquidation agreement, then the Bank may be forced to foreclose via the private power of sale contained in the bank's mortgages. You may assist the Bank in this process by providing interested buyers and cooperate through the foreclosure process. The foreclosure process does, however, add costs, expenses and attorneys' fees to the amount secured by your mortgages and could result in an increased deficiency amount.

If you are seriously making an effort to refinance your loan facility, you may avoid this entire process. We request immediate confirmation of your loan application and efforts to obtaining refinancing. The Bank is ready, able and willing to assist your negotiation of replacement financing.

If you do not respond to this letter with the required information by close of business, April 4, 2003, the Bank will refer this matter to its attorneys at Klemm, Blair, Sterling & Johnson. The firm will contact you thereafter to address the issues in this letter.

I look forward to your response.

Dear Alan,

As per our phone conversation I am writing you with an update of our marketing efforts for your commercial buildings located on marine Drive (Old HSBC office building, Old Guam Marketing building/Deloitte & Touche Building). The buildings have been shown to a number of prospective buyers and tenants. We have presented the building to such tenants as GWA, DEDCA, Fire Department, Revenue & Taxation, PSA, Metro Bank, Camacho Family (for their lending institution, Community First, Sony and other prospective tenants. To date the strongest interest is PSA if we can work out the parking /area situation

On the selling side I have shown the buildings to an investment group from Korea, and Mr. & Mrs. Fang. The Korean group have left island and plan to return Mid April with their decision. It is my understanding they are an electronic firm who have sold some property here on Guam and are trying to re-invest it to income producing property. The Fang's also were interested in doing a 1031 type exchange to income producing properties here in Guam. I have not heard from them in a while but I will contact them this week to see if there is interest in their making an offer. They seemed very serious after inspecting all three of the buildings.

I hope this brings you up to date on our marketing efforts. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Underwood

You gave me until today to propose a repayment plan for the loans with you. Your letter dated 15 2003 I Received on July 18 03. You gave me a Notice of Intent to sell loan. I want to assure that I have been working hard to repay the debt to you. The decision by the bank to sell the loan has opened up new possibilities for us to settle the debt. However 12 days has proved to be too short a time for me to put together an offer to settle the debt. Since it is summer time many of the bank managers with whom I am negotiating are away from their offices. While they have verbally assured me that they will be able to make substantial funds available, they cannot give a commitment in this short a time. I am sure that that you better then anyone Understands the way banks work. Therefore I am asking that you postpone the sale of the loan for thirty days and that you give me until August 31, 2003 to make you an offer.

I realize that the bank wishes to settle this matter. I promise you that I want to settle it as well. The bank and I have had twenty five [25] years of mutually profitable relationship and I have never defaulted on any of my obligations to the bank. I recognize that the bank must make business decisions in its best interest, but I hope that by granting this last extension of thirty days will allow us to end our business relationship on Good terms. If not ,then will be forced to consider other options.

Yours Truly

- 6) Loan is subject to the Bank's receipt and satisfactory review of the Borrower's and Lender's Hazardous Waste Report Questionnaires.

Maximum Loan to Value Ratio: 60%

Interest Rate After Maturity or Default:

Four percentage points (4%) higher than the higher of (i) the rate which would be charged in absence of default or (ii) the Bank's prime rate, fluctuating with prime.

CONDITIONS

1. Security. The Loan shall be secured by:

(a) A mortgage (the "Mortgage"), constituting (i) a first lien upon the Borrower's estate in the Property together with all buildings, fixtures, equipment and appurtenant improvements comprising the Improvements, (ii) a first security interest in all fixtures, furniture, furnishings, equipment, appliances and any other personal property now owned or hereafter acquired by the Borrower and situated on the Property, and (iii) an assignment of rentals. (The property subject to the Mortgage is hereafter referred to as the "Mortgaged Property".)

(b) A security agreement ("Security Agreement"), granting to the Bank a first security interest in certain collateral (the "Collateral"), including, but not limited to, (i) all contracts, permits and authorizations, respecting the management and operation of the Improvements, and (ii) all furniture, furnishings, equipment, appliances and other personal property owned by the Borrower and incorporated in the Improvements or located on the Property.

(c) A financing statement (the "Financing Statement") to perfect the first security interest of the Bank in certain of the Mortgaged Property and in the Collateral.

(d) A separate assignment of rentals and lessor's interest in leases (the "Assignment of Rentals"), assigning to the Bank all rentals and rights of the Borrower as lessor under the Tenant Leases.

5. Escrow. At least 30 days prior to the Closing Date, the Borrower shall select and inform the Bank of the name of the escrow company which will process the payoff of any loans currently secured by the Property. The escrow company shall, at the Borrower's cost and expense, provide the Bank with copies of any documents which the Bank may require for preparation of the Loan documents.

6. Optional Prepayment. Provided that a minimum of three (3) business day's notice is given to the Bank, the Borrower shall have the option to prepay principal on any monthly payment date and shall be subject to a prepayment charge equal to the product of (A) the prepayment multiplied by or (B) a percentage equal to the number of years (in whole numbers rounded upwards) from the date of prepayment to the next adjustment date; in any event, the prepayment charge shall be no less than 1%.

Until the Loan is paid in full (principal and interest), no optional prepayment pursuant to this paragraph 6 shall be credited to or relieve the Borrower to any extent from its obligation thereafter to pay the monthly installments in the amount required by this commitment.

7. Additional Closing Requirements. The Borrower shall furnish to the Bank on or before the Closing Date the following:

(a) (i) A copy of the Articles of Organization of the company and By-Laws certified by the Department of Revenue and Taxation of the Government of Guam.

(ii) A certificate of good standing issued by the Department of Revenue and Taxation of the Government of Guam.

(b) Title Insurance; Chattel Lien Report.

(i) A policy of title insurance, together with such endorsements and reinsurance as the Bank may require (such policy, endorsements and reinsurance being hereinafter referred to as the "Title Policy") issued by any title company authorized to do business in the Territory of Guam and approved by the Bank, in the amount of the Loan, insuring that the Mortgage is a valid first lien on the Mortgaged Property, free and clear of all defects, liens, encumbrances and exceptions to title whatsoever, except such as the Bank may approve in writing. Without limiting the foregoing, the Title Policy shall effect full coverage, against losses arising out of encroachments against boundary or setback lines, against losses from existing or subsequent mechanics' or materialmen's liens which may gain priority over the Mortgage, and against losses arising out of zoning ordinances and regulations and such other losses with respect to which the Bank may request coverage. The endorsements shall include, without limitation, a CLTA 100 endorsement (or its equivalent), a survey endorsement and an assignment of rents endorsement.

(ii) A chattel lien report in form UCC-3 completed and certified by the Director of the Department of Revenue and Taxation verifying that a search of the public records has not disclosed any security interest liens or encumbrances against any personal property owned by the Borrower, except the Financing Statement.

(c) Survey (also referred to as an ALTA survey); Certification

(i) A perimeter survey map, prepared and certified as correct by a registered surveyor, disclosing (A) the location of the perimeter of the Property, (B) all easements and rights-of-way, (C) the lines of the street abutting the Property and the width thereof, (D) the location of the Improvements and their relation by distance to the perimeter of the Property, established setback lines and the street lines and (E) encroachments, if any.

(d) Appraisal Report. A report prepared by the Bank's Appraisal Department or ordered by the Bank from a recognized real estate appraiser, appraising the fair market value of the Mortgage Property in accordance with the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice and applicable Bank regulations resulting in a Loan-to-Value ratio of not more than 60%.

(e) Insurance. Fire and extended coverage insurance, including typhoon insurance, with adequate coinsurance, for the full insurable value of the Improvements, fixtures and equipment, together with flood insurance (if the Improvements are required to be so insured by the Bank's Federal Regulators), and such other insurance customarily required by prudent lenders or required by the Bank.

(f) Financial Statements. Current financial statements of the Borrower.

(g) Governmental Authorizations. Evidence satisfactory to the Bank that the construction and the use of the Improvements fully comply with all federal and territorial statutes, laws, ordinances and regulations relating to land use classification, zoning, coastal zone management, subdivision, setback, environmental, ecological and pollution control, and waste product and sewage disposal (or, if such compliance is not necessary, verification that such compliance is not necessary.

(h) Hazardous Materials.

(i) If requested by the Bank, the Borrower will, at its own cost and expense, furnish to the Bank prior to the Closing Date an environmental inspection report by an independent environmental consultant acceptable to the Bank, identifying and evaluating any existing or potentially hazardous or toxic materials on, under or about the Mortgaged Property. If such report discloses any hazardous or toxic materials in amounts or of a nature unacceptable to the Bank, the Bank shall have the option of either refusing to fund the Loan or requiring an additional environmental inspection and audit report acceptable to the Bank as a condition to the closing of the Loan.

(ii) The Mortgage shall contain warranties by the Borrower that the Mortgaged Property and the soil and groundwater thereunder are free of any hazardous or toxic materials. In addition, the Mortgage shall incorporate covenants by the Borrower (A) to keep and maintain the Mortgaged Property, including the soil and ground water thereunder, in full compliance with all federal, state and county laws relating to environmental conditions and hazardous and toxic materials, and (B) to indemnify the Bank from and against any loss, damage, cost or expense which may be sustained or incurred by the Bank as the result of any violation of such laws by the Borrower, or as the result of any work required to remove any hazardous or toxic materials or to remedy any adverse conditions.

8. Due-on-Sale and Secondary Financing. The Borrower will not, without the Bank's prior written consent, obtain any other financing secured by a lien or security interest on any portion of the Mortgaged Property or Collateral. The Borrower will not, without the Bank's prior written consent, sell, convey, assign, transfer or encumber in any way any interest in the Mortgaged Property or Collateral. The Mortgage and Security Agreement shall provide that a breach of either of such covenants shall constitute an event of default and permit the Bank to declare the entire indebtedness owing by the Borrower to the Bank to be immediately due and payable.

9. Loan Closing Expenses. Whether or not the Loan is closed, the Borrower shall pay all expenses incurred by the Bank in the issuance of this Loan commitment and the satisfaction of the conditions thereof, including, but not limited to, premiums for the Title Policy, survey costs, property inspection costs, recording fees, taxes, appraisal fees, fees and expenses of legal counsel for the Bank (and each participant in, or purchaser of, the Loan), and any other costs incurred by the Bank in connection with any of the matters provided for in this commitment.

10. Accuracy of Information, etc. This commitment is subject to the accuracy as of the date hereof, of all information, data, representations, exhibits, and other material submitted in connection with the Borrower's application.

11. Approval of Bank and its Counsel. All documents, agreements, contracts, leases, instruments, certificates, survey maps, Plans and Specifications, appraisals, financial statements, operating statements, reports and opinions required by this commitment must be in form and substance satisfactory to the Bank and its counsel. Any insurance or title insurance policy must be in form and amount satisfactory to the Bank. The Bank reserves the right to review after the acceptance of this commitment all information, documents, Plans and Specifications previously furnished by the Borrower and this commitment is not an indication or agreement that such items have been approved by the Bank or its counsel. If requested by the Bank, the Borrower shall deliver to the Bank on the Closing Date, an opinion of Borrower's independent legal counsel, in form and substance satisfactory to the Bank.

If the above terms and conditions are acceptable, please execute the form of acceptance on the enclosed copy of this letter and return the same to us and all other required documents detailed herein. As stated above, the above terms are for indication purposes only and are subject to formal approval by the Bank.

We hope you will find the above terms favorable and look forward to your reply. However, if you have any questions, please call me at 475-7853.

Sincerely,

TO: DEFENDANT HONGKONG & SHANGHAI BANKING CORPORATION, LTD.

Plaintiffs, request, in accordance with Rule 33 of the Guam Rules of Civil Procedure, that Defendant, Hongkong & Shanghai Banking Corporation, Ltd. answer under oath the following interrogatories within forty-five (45) days after service of the Summons and Complaint and these Interrogatories.

EXHIBIT C

INSTRUCTIONS

A. In answering these interrogatories furnish all information, however obtained, including hearsay, which is available to you and information known by you and information known by or in possession of yourself, your agents and your attorneys, or appearing in your records.

B. If you cannot answer the following interrogatories in full after exercising due diligence to secure the full information to do so, state and answer to the extent possible, specifying your inability to answer the remainder, stating whatever information or knowledge you have concerning the unanswered portions and detailing what you did in attempting to secure the unknown information.

If an interrogatory has subparts, answer each part separately and in full, and do not limit your answer to the interrogatory as a whole.

In addition to supplying the information asked for and identifying the specific documents referred to, identify and describe all documents to which you refer in preparing your answers.

C. These interrogatories and requests are continuing in nature. You are therefore under a duty to seasonably supplement your responses with respect to any question directly addressed to the identity and location of person having knowledge of discoverable matters, the identity of each person expected to be called as an expert witness at trial, the subject matter on which he is expected to testify, and the substance of his testimony. You are also under a duty to seasonably amend a prior response to these interrogatories, if you obtain information upon the basis of which you know that the response was incorrect when made, or though correct when made, is no longer true and the circumstances are such that a failure to amend the response is in substance a knowing concealment.

D. State whether the information furnished is within your personal knowledge, and, if not, the name of each person to whom the information is a matter of personal knowledge, if known.

E. Where the name or identity of a person is required or requested, the full name of the person, title and position, employer, as well as home address and business and business address and telephone number, shall be furnished.

F. The person or persons who provide information in answer to the following interrogatories will each identify which answers have been provided and furnish his or her name, address, and title.

G. A question which seeks information contained in or information about or identification of any documents may be answered by providing a copy of such document for inspection and copying or by furnishing a copy of such document without a request for production.

ARRIOLA, COWAN & ARRIOLA, HAGATNA, GUAM 96910

H. If an interrogatory is objected to on the basis of an assertion of a privilege, identify the privilege claimed and state the specific factual grounds for the applicability of the privilege to the responsive information. List the following for each item claimed to be privileged:

- a. A description of the nature of the matter claimed to be privileged;
- b. The name, occupation and capacity of the individual from whom the allegedly privileged material emanated.
- c. The name, occupation and capacity of the individual to whom the allegedly privileged matter was directed.

INTERROGATORIES

1. Identify the person or persons answering these interrogatories.
2. State the total amount of monies deposited by Plaintiffs in deposit accounts maintained at HSBC from January 1, 1978 through August 31, 2003.
3. State the total amount of monies deposited by Plaintiffs in savings accounts maintained at HSBC from January 1, 1978 through August 31, 2003.
4. State the total amount of interest paid by Plaintiffs to HSBC on loan agreements between Plaintiffs and HSBC from January 1, 1978 through August 31, 2003.
5. State the total amount of bank fees paid by Plaintiffs to HSBC for all banking transactions between Plaintiffs and HSBC from January 1, 1978 through August 31, 2003.

6. State the date of the Loan Purchase Agreement (hereafter "Agreement") with Paradise Marine Corporation, as Buyer (hereafter "Buyer"), whereby Hongkong & Shanghai Banking Corporation, Ltd. (hereafter "Bank"), as Seller, agreed to sell, transfer and assign to the Buyer, all of the Bank's right, title, and interest to the Bank's Loan (hereafter "Loan") with K. Sadhwani's, Inc. As used herein, Loan Purchase Agreement is the "loan purchase agreement" referred to in the Bank's Notice to K. Sadhwani Inc., dated July 15, 2003, a copy of which is attached.

7. State the purchase price of the Sadhwani Loan.
8. State the terms of the payment by Buyer.
9. State the date or dates and amount or amounts of each payment.
10. State the name, title and address of the person who executed the Agreement in behalf of the Bank.
11. State the name, title and address of the person who executed in behalf of the Buyer.
12. State the place where the Agreement was executed by the Bank.
13. State the place where the Agreement was executed by the Buyer.
14. State whether the Agreement contains a recourse provision.

15. State whether the Agreement contains any guaranty by the Bank.
16. State whether the Agreement contains any representation by the Bank.
17. State whether the Agreement contains any warranty by the Bank.
18. State whether the Agreement contains any indemnity by the Bank.
19. State whether any other loan or evidence of indebtedness held by the Bank was sold, transferred and assigned to Buyer under the Agreement.

20. If the answer to the preceding interrogatory is yes, state:

- (a) The name, and address of the borrower;
- (b) The principal amount of the loan or evidence of indebtedness;
- (c) The balance of the loan or evidence of indebtedness as of the closing of the Agreement;
- (d) The purchase price for each loan or evidence of indebtedness;
- (e) The terms of purchase of each loan or evidence of indebtedness, i.e., whether in cash or term;
- (f) The date of sale of each loan.

21. State whether any other loan or evidence of indebtedness held by the Bank was sold, transferred and assigned to Buyer, separate and apart from the Agreement.

22. If the answer of the preceding interrogatory is yes, state:

- (a) The name, and address of the borrower;
- (b) The principal amount of the loan or evidence of indebtedness;
- (c) The balance of the loan or evidence of indebtedness as of the closing of the Agreement;
- (d) The purchase price for each loan or evidence of indebtedness;
- (e) The terms of purchase of each loan or evidence of indebtedness, i.e., whether in cash or term;
- (f) The date of each such sale.

23. State whether any other loan or evidence of indebtedness held by the Bank was sold, transferred and assigned to parties other than Buyer, during calendar year 2002, and up to the date of your Response.

24. If the answer to the preceding Interrogatory is yes, state:

- (a) The name, and address of the borrower;
- (b) State the name and address of the purchaser.
- (c) The principal amount of the loan or evidence of indebtedness;
- (d) The balance of the loan or evidence of indebtedness as of the closing of the Agreement;
- (e) The purchase price for each loan or evidence of indebtedness;

(f) The terms of purchase of each loan or evidence of indebtedness, i.e., whether in cash or term;

(g) The date of each such sale.

25. State whether the Buyer obtained a loan or credit from Bank for the purchase of the Loan.

26. If the answer is yes to the preceding interrogatory, state:

(a) The amount of the loan or credit;

(b) The amount of fees paid by the Buyer;

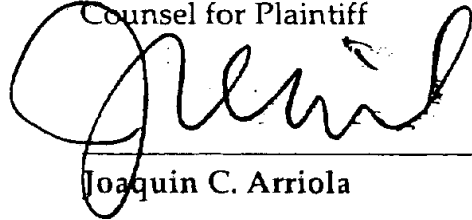

(c) The interest rate charged to the Buyer;

(d) The security provided by Buyer for such loan or credit.

Attn.: Mr. Alan Sadhwani, President

Dear Alan,

NOTICE OF INTENT TO SELL LOAN

Notice is hereby given that the Hongkong & Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited ("HSBC") has entered into a loan purchase agreement with Paradise Marine Corporation (the "Buyer") whereby HSBC has agreed to sell, transfer and assign to the Buyer all of HSBC's right, title and interest in and to HSBC's loan with K. Sadhwani Inc., including all mortgages, security agreements, promissory notes and any investments securing such loan, and together with any liens, security interests, charges and other rights related thereto (the "Loan") provided the Buyer complies with the requirements of the agreement upon closing. The Closing for the sale is currently scheduled for 11th August 2003 or such other date as agreed by the parties. Should the Closing occur, the Buyer shall be a party to the Loan and any related loan documents and HSBC shall be absolutely released from any obligation, covenants, and agreements under said Loan and any related loan documents. Further, in the event that the Closing shall occur, you will receive further notice regarding the manner in which all further loan payments shall be paid.

Yours faithfully,
